

JacadoStrategy

JacadoStrategy is an ancient board game. It is simple but non-trivial. You are presented with a board with three black balls and one white ball. You play Blacks and the phone plays White. White can move to any adjacent cell (horizontally, vertically and diagonally). Blacks can only move up (vertically or diagonally) or to the sides. Blacks' objective is to trap the White so that it has no place to move. White's objective is to reach the lowest cell.
